COVID 19: Relevant information*

Topics covered:

1. Washing the body (Ghusl)
2. Transport
3. Prayer
4. Social distancing

* Tailored Burial Policy for Covid-19 victims provides more details. See our website.

1. Washing the body (Ghusl)

Washing a COVID 19 victim: IFI staff and ICCI staff will not coordinate or partake in the washing ghusl nor the dry ablution *Tayammum of the deceased

COVID 19 victims will not be:

- i. Washed ghusl or undergo dry ablution Tayammum in hospitals or funeral homes
- ii. Shrouded in hospitals or funeral homes

The Muslim community must do its part in helping mitigate the spread of COVID 19, and as such washing the body not only places additional pressure on hospital staff (particularly due to limited resources) but it also poses a high risk to the living contracting the virus.

NOTE: Families are not obliged to wash ghusl the body or do a dry ablution Tayammum for COVID 19 victims in light of the fatwa issued by the European Council of Fatwa and Research ECFR.

The body CANNOT be shrouded before being placed in a body bag (COVID 19 victims must be buried in a coffin).

2. Transport

COVID 19 victims will NOT be brought to the ICCI for ghusl or Janaazah prayer, they will be transported directly to the cemetery.

3. Prayer

Janaazah prayer will NOT be prayed in the Islamic Foundation of Ireland or Clonskeagh mosque ICCI due to COVID 19.

Janaazah prayer WILL BE PRAYED at the cemetery.

4. Social Distancing

People MUST travel in separate cars to the cemetery unless they are part of the same family who have been social distancing in the same house together.

Please attempt to minimise* the numbers of people to safeguard the health and welfare of others as per government and HSE guidelines.

Number of attendees at the funeral: You are advised to follow the government regulations set forth at the advice of the HSE.

Self-Isolation: any family member who has been asked to self-isolate must do so and not attend the funeral.

NOTE:

Dry ablution Tayammum: slapping a piece of earth/ stone and rubbing the hands and face of the dead person washing the body Ghusl: this is an Islamic practice that can only be carried out by a Muslim.

Expenses for the burial

When a Muslim dies; the family of the deceased will call the Islamic Foundation of Ireland for help in carrying out the burial.

Single plot vs. family plot

Definitions:

- Single plot: one separate designated grave space for the burial of one person
- Family plot: one designated grave space used to bury up to three people (at separate occasions)

Please note the following:

- The Dublin County Council charge less for family plots.
- The deceased must be buried in a coffin if you choose a family plot
- The price of the coffin is included (for the family plot)
- In some cases, only two people can be buried in a family plot

Prices are subject to vary depending on extenuating circumstances.

2. Meet with the family member/designated person to obtain the expenses of the burial.
3. The Islamic Foundation of Ireland will:
 - a. Acquire a plot number (in the cemetery) from the County Council.
 - b. Provide relevant updates to concerned parties
 - c. The Islamic Foundation of Ireland will coordinate the ghusl washing and kafan shrouding of the body with Clonskeagh Mosque (ICCI)

Note: Ghusl of a confirmed COVID 19 victim will NOT be carried out in ICCI.
 - d. Arrange a Grave Digger to dig the grave and bury the deceased
 - e. Facilitate payment to all the necessary parties
 - f. May also provide an invoice for the expenses of the burial (upon request of the family) in order to seek a reimbursement from the welfare office
4. The Islamic Foundation of Ireland will coordinate the transportation of the body with the Undertakers to the necessary locations (where applicable)
 - i. Clonskeagh Mosque (ICCI) for washing the body
 - ii. Clonskeagh Mosque (ICCI) or Islamic Foundation of Ireland (IFI) for the Janaazah prayer
 - iii. Cemetery for the Janaazah prayer and burial

Headstones	Plaques
We do not recommend the purchase of a headstone as it is not in keeping with the Islamic tradition. The money would be better spent in charity on behalf of the deceased. See the link for further details: https://islamicfoundation.ie/site/assets/files/1080/skm_c25821090913001.pdf Obtaining a headstone requires the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Planning permission: an application form (“Application for a headstone permit SDCC from 1.3.2021”) must be completed and returned to the county council. b. a fee of €490.00 c. Fees for the actual headstone For further information contact the county council @ 014149234.	Our recommendation (as per the Islamic tradition) would be to purchase a plaque instead. It is far cheaper and requires no planning permission: Plaques are approximately €150.00 only. See the link for more details on plaques: https://www.fingalmemorials.ie/view-cats.php?psc_id=34
